

Cain's Quest Snowmobile Endurance Race brings EXTREME sports to a whole new level! The Challenge? About 2300 kms of back country racing through Labrador's remote wilderness. Travelling from Labrador City to Schefferville, Que., Churchill Falls, Makkovik, Postville, Rigolet, Happy Valley-Goose Bay, and back to Labrador City via Churchill Falls. Teams of 2 riders race day and night guided by GPS and driven by determination and will. Sub-zero temperatures, unpredictable weather, mechanical failures and rugged terrain. Cain's Quest is what extreme racing is all about.

Cain's Quest racers challenge the legend for a shot at their share of a total purse of $62,000 in COLD HARD CASH and the chance to Challenge the Legend and become the next Champion of Cain's Quest; CANADA'S LONGEST SNOWMOBILE ENDURANCE RACE and what racers who have endured this grueling event, are calling the WORLD'S TOUGHEST
